The Dementia Interpreter course will allow you to begin to learn the language of dementia, and truly understand how communication can change for people living with dementia.

The course is an immersive experience where we use equipment to experience what it might be like to communicate if you were living with dementia.

Once the course is completed, you will become a registered Level 1 Dementia Interpreter, enabling you to have full access to the revolutionary Dementia Dictionary and take advantage of exciting opportunities that this offers, all at no additional cost.
